

When was the last time that you found yourself in a situation when you didn't know what to say?

How often have you stepped away from a conversation wishing that it had gone differently?

And

For how long have you been aware that this is an area that you could improve upon?

Today's special guest is here to help you make progress with EXACTLY that.

For over 25 years, Phil M Jones has been obsessed with language, lexicon and the impact just one singular conversation can have on your life.

He is the best-selling author of 7 business books, one very cute children's book, producer of the most listened to non-fiction audiobook of all time and the creator of the "Exactly What To Say" movement.

He is a serial entrepreneur, had his first business at just 14 years of age, is the youngest recipient of the "British Excellence in Sales and Marketing" award, one of less than 200 living members of the National Speakers Association Hall of Fame and proudly serves in residence at High Point University's access to innovators program.

With experience of training over two million people, in over 800 different industries, across 59 different countries then it has become clear that sometimes the difference between winning and second place is simply knowing...

Exactly What to Say

When to say it

And

Exactly how to make more of your conversations count.

Please welcome, Phil M Jones!
